CAN'T ANSWER? SEND THIS.

When a customer calls and you can't pick up, most of them just try the next business. A short text back keeps them. Every good one has the same four ingredients.

1 Your name and business
So they know who's texting.

2 Why you can't pick up
"I'm on a job" or "I'm with a client".

3 A link to book
So they book instead of calling the next one.

4 One easy next step
A photo of the problem, or a day that suits them.
