ASK LIKE A PERSON: 4 NOTES TO COPY

People say yes to a person, not to a form. Copy these into WhatsApp or SMS, or write them on a real note for the invoice or the parcel. Fill in the blanks with your own words.

NOTE 1 Ask for a review

When: When the job is done and they're happy

Hi _name_ ! Thanks for having us today. If you're happy, a quick review would really help us: _review link_ . – _your name_

NOTE 2 Say thank you

When: The day after a first job

Thanks for choosing us, _name_ . It was a pleasure _the job, e.g. fixing your geyser_ . Call me any time. – _your name_

NOTE 3 A payment reminder

When: A day before the invoice is due

Hi _name_ , a friendly reminder that invoice _#_ is due on _day_ . Here's the pay link: _your pay link_ . Thanks! – _your name_

NOTE 4 A booking nudge

When: When a service is due again

Hi _name_ , your _service_ is due next week. Shall I pencil you in for _day and time_ ? – _your name_

THE 3 RULES

1 Their name, and yours
A person is asking, so sign it. Never "Dear customer" or "The team".

2 One ask per note
A review, a payment or a time. Not all three at once.

3 Make yes easy
Add the link, or offer one time they can just say yes to.

WHY IT WORKS

A professor sent the same survey to university staff, fifty letters each way. With a handwritten sticky note on it, about 3 in 4 came back. Printed only, about 1 in 3. A blank sticky note barely helped: it's the person asking that counts.

KEEP IT REAL

Write it the way you'd say it out loud. If it sounds like a robot, change the words until it sounds like you.

WANT THEM SENT FOR YOU?

We build apps that send notes like these at the right moment, in your own words, around how your business already works.
